Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new guide, but do not include a price on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different prices on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is strictly the same on each web page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum value is.

Finally, when you've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your e book will herald both traffic and profits.
