Do that by creating a gross sales page for the new ebook, but do not include a worth on that page. As a substitute, add a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Ensure your gross sales copy is exactly the identical on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and gross sales of your book. This can inform you what your optimum price is.

In the end, if you've written a book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your e book will usher in both site visitors and profits.
