In addition to selling your books assiduously on-line, there are a number of different strategies that may help you promote more books.

One is to give something away without spending a dime with your ebook, such as a priceless bonus item. Or bundle several ebooks under one value, which lowers the value for each book if they had been bought separately.

An efficient approach for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought a book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by making a sales page for the brand new e-book, but do not embrace a worth on that page. As an alternative, add quite a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other strategy is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate sales pages with different prices on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is strictly the same on every page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This may inform you what your optimum worth is.

In the end, when you've written a ebook that solves a drawback or presents a new method, your ebook will herald each site visitors and profits. So be sure you write that promoting-deal with sentence
